

Outstanding Women in Science Seminar Series
presents

Interfaces in Science
Balancing the Ascension in Academia

Dr. Rebecca Richards-Kortum

Malcolm Gillis University Professor
Director, Institute of Biosciences and Bioengineering
Director, Rice 360°: Institute for Global Health

About the Speaker: Dr. Richards-Kortum is a member of the National Academy of Sciences and was the youngest and first female to be appointed Malcolm Gillis University Professor. Her work uses nanotechnology to develop portable, low cost diagnostic imaging.

Date: March 30, 2016
Time: 5:30 pm Registration & Sign In, 6 pm Seminar and Reception
Location: Rice BioScience Research Collaborative (BRC)
6500 Main St, Houston, TX, 77030

Reception with refreshments to follow.

RSVP here or to awis.seminars@gmail.com. On-site registration welcome!