

STEM IN THE AMERICAS

April 26, 2016

DR. ROSA DEVES

Professor, Biochemistry, Vice President, Academic Affairs,
University of Chile

“Science: the Freedom to Question and Search as a Right for All”

Date: April 26, 2016
Time: 1:00–2:30 p.m.
Venue: UCBB 522
RSVP: <http://goo.gl/forms/wwlomcfZlx>

Professor Rosa Devés graduated in Biochemistry from Universidad de Chile, received a Ph.D. degree in Biochemistry from the University of Western Ontario and did postdoctoral studies at the University of Southern California. Alongside her academic career at the Faculty of Medicine, University of Chile, she has been engaged in the improvement of science education at the schools, mainly through the establishment of an Inquiry based Science Education Program. She has served as Graduate Director, Pro-rector and is currently Vice-President of Academic Affairs of the University leading an equity and inclusion initiative. She is a member of the Chilean Academy of Sciences.

For more information visit www.uh.edu/advance

UNIVERSITY of HOUSTON | ADVANCE