

UNIVERSITY of HOUSTON | NSM
Faculty Development Workshop Series

Electronic Laboratory Notebooks for the Teaching Lab and the Research Lab

Electronic Lab Notebook for undergraduate laboratory & design courses

When? Friday, July 22nd; 10:00 -11:00 AM; 106 Science Teaching Lab Bldg.

Presenter: Richard Romero, Lab Archives

Format? Short demo & practice session with LabArchives "Classroom Edition"

Who? Lab course instructors, lab coordinators & TAs will see how they can save time grading, improve feedback, etc. while eliminating paper notebook/manual.

Why? See how LabArchives supports lab learning while providing experience with a real-world tool to engage students, save them money & paper; create & test a free instructor account.

Please RSVP: <http://www.signupgenius.com/go/10c0d4fadaf28a5fb6-labarchives>

How can an Electronic Lab Notebook increase my research lab's productivity, compliance & protect its IP?

Presenter: Richard Romero, Lab Archives

When? Friday, July 22nd; 11:15 AM-12:15 PM; 106 Science Teaching Lab Bldg.

Format? Short demo & practice session with LabArchives "Professional Edition"

Who? For PIs, Postdocs, Lab Managers & Graduate Students in any discipline looking for a better means to document research in a secure platform.

Why? See why LabArchives is a practical tool for lab groups (now licensed enterprise-wide by CalTech, Cornell, MIT, Univ of Sydney, Univ of Wisconsin, Yale, etc.) and then create & test a free account.

Please RSVP: www.SignUpGenius.com/go/10C0D4FADAF28A5FB6-labarchives1