

Faculty Development Workshop Series

College of Natural Science and Mathematics

2016-2017

Purpose: To develop a professional learning community for discussion of best practices in teaching. The workshops are supported in part by a grant to the University of Houston from the Howard Hughes Medical Institute through the Science Education Program.

Date	Time	Place	Speaker	Topic
September 29, 2016	11:30-12:45	Agnes Arnold 2	Michael Starbird, Professor, Mathematics, UT-Austin	Inquiry Based Learning: Mathematics and Beyond
October 28, 2016	11:30-12:45	MDA Library 306	Porcia Vaughn, Assistant Librarian, UH	Undergraduate Information Literacy Skills: Integrating research tools and library resources into your course and assignment design
December 2, 2016	11:30-12:45	MDA Library 306	Ann Cheek and Ana Medrano, Associate Professors, Department of Biology and Biochemistry, UH	Stimulating Genuine Teamwork in a Large Enrollment Core Course
January 27, 2017	11:30-12:45	MDA Library 306	Ann Saterbak, Teaching Professor and Associate Dean, Engineering Education, Rice U.	A Flipped Classroom Model for Teaching Engineering Design
February 7, 2017	11:30-12:45	TBA	John Hutchinson, Professor and Dean of Undergraduates, Chemistry, Rice	The Concept Development Study Approach to Constructivism and Active Learning in General Chemistry
March 24, 2017	11:30-12:45	TBA	Lindsay Swartz, Instructional Associate Professor, and Shari Mauthner, Instructional Designer, College of Pharmacy, UH	Active Learning Methods for the Classroom
April 28, 2017	11:30-12:45	MDA Library 306	Martha Dunkelberger and Donna Pattison, UH	Understanding Our Students: Considerations and Best Practices for Developing an Inclusive Teaching Environment