E-MENTORING WORKSHOP FOR STEM FACULTY

E-MENTORING GRADUATE STUDENTS: DECODING THE LANGUAGE,
PHILOSOPHY, AND BEST PRACTICES OF AN EFFECTIVE MENTOR

HOWARD G. ADAMS, PH.D. is Founder and President of H. G. Adams & Associates, Inc., a Norfolk, Virginia-based consulting company that provides human development services and products to educational, governmental, and industrial organizations. Adams is a leading expert on mentoring and mentorship program development and has written, lectured, and consulted extensively on effective strategies for career, educational, and personal development. A key feature of his work is the exploration of factors that serve as barriers to greater academic performance, retention, success, and graduation of underrepresented minority (URM) and women graduate students. He is a sought-after keynote speaker and seminar presenter, having spoken at over 650 colleges/universities, numerous national conferences, and conducted training for several Fortune 500 companies and federal agencies.
