DiscoveryDays

Welcome to BP's 2015 Discovery Days. This year's leadership programs are designed for driven students who want to build real-world skills before graduation. Discovery Days isn't a recruiting event – it's a two-and-a-half day program designed to give you valuable insight into the energy industry, and to help you cultivate networking and leadership competencies that go beyond the classroom.

Why participate?

- Engage in interactive leadership workshops.
- Network with BP executives, employees and current interns.
- Learn all about the energy industry.
- Meet outstanding students from across the country.
- Receive an all-expense-paid trip to one of BP's key locations.
- Receive a $1000 scholarship.

We're hosting three Discovery Days programs this coming June and July at our North American headquarters in Houston, TX. The deadline to apply for each program is March 1, 2015. Space is limited, so apply early at bp.com/usdiscoverydays.
